

SOCIAL QUARTERS OPENING UP FRIDAY

Happy to inform everyone that our Social Quarters will be opening back up this Friday at 3:00 PM. And yes, we will be selling your favorite alcoholic adult beverages. You must wear a mask to enter the Social Quarters and you will then need to be seated at a table or the bar. Once seated, you may take your mask off and order a drink. We must enforce social distancing between those sitting at the bar and we must enforce social distancing between tables. There will only be 4 persons allowed to sit at any table. If you leave your seat to go order a drink at the bar or need to make a trip to the restroom, you must wear your mask and you must social distance until you return to your seat. Under no circumstances will you be allowed to consume any beverage while standing anywhere in the Social Quarters. Again, you must be seated at a table or the bar to consume any beverage. Below are the weekly hours of operation of the Social Quarters which is subject to change.
